WHO WE ARE?

Founded in 1951, NABBS is an independent nonprofit of spouses of legal professionals—committed to uplifting our communities, empowering families, and advancing justice alongside the NBA.

The NABBS Foundation is our charitable arm, advancing our mission through initiatives focused on education, health, and community well-being. The Foundation serves as a vital bridge between advocacy and action—strengthening communities, promoting equity, and creating opportunities that uplift the legal profession.

WHAT WE DO?

Through service, we implement meaningful programs that support families, elevate youth, and strengthen communities. Our initiatives focus on education, health, civic engagement, and legacy-building—delivering impact where it's needed most.

Signature programs and initiatives include:

- Dorothy Atkinson Legal Scholarship
- Bonnie & Grace Wheatley Breast Cancer Forum
- Dr. Annie Lawrence Brown Health Initiatives
- Dr. Cleota & Harvey Wibekin Coalition for the Homeless Fund
- Presidents' Endowment Fund
- Educational Seminars & Service Projects
- NBA's Youth Enrichment Program (YEP)
