THE CIRCLE OF LOVE/LIFE

GOD IS LOVE

I hope I can make my words meaningful to you as I attempt to convey this message sent to me.

(So Simple/Yet not easy to talk about)

A Circle has no beginning and no end--or so we've been taught--right? Let's look at it: We exist because of God (Our Heavenly Father.)

He loves us and provides for us. He provides for us even when we did not know we needed it--but He knew! Indeed, even before we were born, He knew what we'd be needing in this new dimension in order for us to learn and grow and later return as a better being. WE NEED TO THANK HIM! --for all the pleasant things He provides, but also for the lessons He sends our way where we have opportunities to learn and grow. As we thank Him, MORE WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITIES HEAD OUR WAY! (A CIRCLE!) It's our thankfulness that allows the circle to complete itself. So, it seems that although what seems to be the beginning, since He is always present in our lives, and since what we tend to think of as the ending really is just the start of a bigger circle, there is no beginning and no end. Thank you, God!
