

A MORNING WATCH FOR THESE TROUBLED TIMES

For the week of January 17, 2021

I'm in a storm, Hallelujah,
But not in a storm to stay!
For God, as my Rock, Hallelujah !
Will bring me to a calmer day.

Many of us these days are feeling helpless! -- like a small ship in a storm being tossed hither and fro !

Within an already crazy mixed-up time, some of us are dealing with our own seemingly impossible situations, and we can't hold the compass of where we are to go and what we are to do!!!

Remember, even Jesus found himself in this situation. Again, as always, tho, He showed us the way. Standing in the out-of-control boat, He commanded the sea, "PEACE--BE STILL!", and it was.

He can do the same for us and our storms. The secret (that isn't a secret at all) is we must put our minds on Him totally-- not on our storms.

He alone can calm the storm! Thank you God!

I'm on the Rock, Halleluiah!

I'M ON THE ROCK TO STAY!
