

MORNING WATCH

For the week of January 24, 2021

(A note from Janny to Janny--which you might want to write to yourself, too!)

Recently, I received a surprise package in the mail. It was from an acquaintance that I admire very much, and that he would bother to send me a gift was most flattering to me. The package contained a packet of note cards featuring his excellent photography on the covers. Now I had a problem - I love these so much, I don't want to send them away! However, I realized that they do nobody but me any good just sitting in my desk, but if I use them for their intended purpose, someone else also gets the pleasure of their beauty. This made me think about what we pass on. Occasionally a bit of gossip is just so juicy, it seems it has to go further.

IT DOESN'T AND SHOULD NOT!

If each of us will pass on the beauty of life and let the ugly stop with us, we can put an end to a lot of nastiness in this world.... ONE PERSON AT A TIME!

Let it begin with me!

I'm gonna try to remember that!
