

Easter Morning Watch 2022

For April 17, 2022

“It is finished.”

Jesus’ words from the cross have for many of us been a bit thought provoking. What was he referring to? - His ministry here on earth?-- the terrible ordeal He was going through? His realization that He was dying? Because he was Human, He had to go through all the emotions that a normal human being would have felt. But also, as God’s Son, He surely had a different perspective than we might have had.

If He felt his ministry was over-- Was He satisfied with it?

In regard to this ordeal--Was He just grateful it was close to being over?

He had to have wondered if He’d done everything He was supposed to during His lifetime (His allotted time on Earth)

But- three more days & we know it really was not finished! He had to know what was coming, so what did those three words from the cross mean? Because we know that Jesus was the Son of God, we tend to think of Him as being perfect, which of course He was, but He was also human, and that is why his sacrifice for us is so incredible! Surely not one of us would have considered doing what He did FOR US!

There is no way we can thank Him properly; however, we can try by remembering the lessons He taught us while He was with us and doing our best to follow those instructions. (Number 1. “LOVE ONE ANOTHER!”)

We need to prove those three words from the cross to be wrong! We must not let His work be finished. It is up to us to continue it. and today we -

CELEBRATE!!!!!!!!!!
