

MORNING WATCH

for the week of July 11, 2021

It Happened in Walmart

(Ok, folks, It's time for a Folksy Story)

Our Way-shower, Jesus, left us with one commandment, “Love one another as I have loved you.”

I had just arrived at the Washington C.H. Walmart as I encountered a lady close to my age coming toward me.

“Well! How are you?”, she said as though she knew me.

She did look as though maybe I should know her, but???? not a clue, really, I replied to her, “Hanging In!”
She replied back, “That what we do, isn't it?”, and we smiled at each other. “God bless you”, she said. “Oh He has and continues to” I said. She then came closer and asked “May I give you a hug? (She was a sincere hugger.)

Two strangers hugging each other in Walmart.

Yes, Jesus,

There is still hope for this world!

(Even if we are slow learners)
