

Morning Watch for the week of September 4, 2022

A Morning Watch from CAMP 2011-MONDAY

RISE ABOVE THE FRAY SHINE TO SHOW THE WAY!

Rise above the fray of FEAR

This first day of camp is kinda scary, huh? New campers are not sure what's going on, and new staff are not confident that they know what they are doing.

Everyday--at camp or not-- we all have our fears. Some are real--some are imagined. (Actually, MOST are imagined. Most of the things we worry about and are afraid of are not real. We conjure them up in our minds!)

Morning watch at CAMP is the perfect place to start to Rise above that! Why?

Because at Camp, easier here than most any other place, we come to realize that God is with us always. With God, all things are possible. If we just give our fears to Him (really give them to Him), He will accept them and help us to understand that He is in charge, and He will protect us from those fears—real or imagined....and the cool thing is, as we realize this, as we are able to confidently forge ahead, now absent of fear, we can be a beacon for those who have not yet realized this! (Shine to show the way!)

The Lord is my light and my salvation. Of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalm 27:1

Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luke12:32
