Paddling past Procrastination / Arriving at my Destination

This has been a new era in our CAMP life. We have survived several other eras along the way to this destination.

What will our new Destination be?

Whatever it is, remember--

Don't let folks junk you dream!

Watch out for enticing 'Set-backs"

and

Portage on through the Rocky Places.

And though it may be discouraging at times,

Hold on, Give it some time,

and

PADDLE ON!

(EVEN IF IT'S SOMETIMES UPSTREAM!)
