Follow the Detours In Your Life

“God has a plan of where you are to go,
which road to take—don’t worry, He will know.”

So, how was your first full day of CAMP?

Maybe it was amazing—full of laughter, fun, and new friendships.

Maybe it wasn’t what you expected—maybe you’re still figuring things out.

Whatever it was, today’s a fresh start.

You might be facing moments that feel uncertain or awkward.

But just because you can’t see the whole plan, doesn’t mean God isn’t working behind the scenes.

Our theme says, “Don’t worry—He will know.”

That means you don’t have to figure it all out right now!

Every detour is an invitation: To trust. To be brave. To keep going. To have Faith. Sometimes God lets the plan unfold one step at a time.

So today, just take the next step. Try a new activity. Reach Out and say “Hi” to one new person. Or simply Be Still....

Make a Start, He’ll Do His Part.

God’s already ahead of you.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.”— Proverbs 3:5–6

*“I’ve gotta reach out to my Father up above. Gotta be free to accept His own love. I’ve gotta let go of my selfish ugly ways. And try to live as He would every day.”
— Janny Brizius 1982*
