

Jordan VanLandingham

BFA 2025
Illustration
Columbus
College of Art
& Design

Phone:

(614)-687-6265

Email:

Jordanbethvan@gmail.com

Website:

jordanbeth.art

Digital Programs:

WGSN

Kaledo
Print

Office

Job Experience:

Freelance Artist, Spoonflower, January 2024 - Present

- Creates and sells original, hand illustrated prints and patterns
- Creates new artwork to enter into Design Challenge Competitions

Independent Art Instructor, September 2018 - Present

- Instructs a weekly curriculum (for duration of individual class length), modeled for 10-12 year old children, that covers a variety of explorative topics, including relief printmaking, book construction, and handmade beads.
- Helps students explore their creative voice through art while giving them proper techniques and tools to accomplish the tasks at hand.

Head Customer Service Manager, Hobby Lobby Inc, August 2022 - Present

- Commended by direct managers and district managers for exceptional initiative and providing excellent customer service.
- Responsible for running the front end of the store, maintaining a clean and order work environment while also ensuring things run smoothly
- Oversees all cash transactions that take place in the front end of the store

Skills:

- Teamwork: Learned to collaborate and communicate with team members and coaches on FIRST FRC Team 1317 Digital Fusion. Transitioning through roles in the team, from intro learning, to student leadership, to mentorship.
- Task Management: Learned to work quickly and efficiently through strict deadlines on school projects. Prioritized important details and developed many pieces during the same time period.
- Fast Learner: Demonstrated the ability to quickly grasp new concepts and adapt to changing environments.
- Color and Style: Experience translating trending colors and concepts into unique styles and cohesive palettes.
- Research: Experience both collecting and presenting data on current trends in the market.