

CAST OF CHARACTERS – MY FAIR LADY

ELIZA DOOLITTLE

A cockney flower girl from Lisson Grove working outside Covent Garden. Her potential to become "a lady" becomes the object of a bet between Higgins and Pickering.

COLONEL PICKERING

Retired British officer with colonial experience and the author of "Spoken Sanskrit."

MRS. EYNSFORD-HILL

A friend of Mrs. Higgins' and Freddy's mother.

MRS. HIGGINS

Henry's long-suffering mother.

HENRY HIGGINS

British, upper class professional Batchelor, world famous phonetics expert, teacher and author of "Higgins' Universal Alphabet."

FREDDY EYNSFORD-HILL

Upper class young man who becomes completely smitten with Eliza.

ALFRED P. DOOLITTLE

Eliza's father; an elderly but vigorous dustman.

BARTENDER

George, works the Tottenham Court Road Pub.

HARRY

Drinking companion of Alfred Doolittle.

JAMIE

Drinking companion of Alfred Doolittle.

MRS. PEARCE

Henry Higgins' housekeeper.

PROF. ZOLTAN KARPATY

A bearded Hungarian; former phonetics student of Henry Higgins.

FIRST COCKNEY, SECOND COCKNEY, THIRD COCKNEY

In Covent Garden Market; with a Fourth Cockney they form the male COCKNEY QUARTET.