

Robbin Gallery is a nonprofit artists' cooperative. All visual arts are represented and encouraged.

Our mission is to bring art to the community while motivating artists to advance their skills, expand their creative horizons and network with other artists.

Robbin Gallery encourage members to participate in operating, staffing and expanding the gallery. Members acquire valuable insights on preparing, displaying and promoting their art.

Benefits of Robbin Gallery Membership

- Members have the opportunity to display their work in a wonderful art space.
- Members are guaranteed entry into the two members-only shows each year.
- Members pay a reduced commission of 10% on all in-gallery art sales unless stated otherwise.
- Members may exhibit their art work at several off-site public spaces in the northwest suburbs.
- Members may book the gallery for demonstrations, classes, performances, and readings as available.
