

The trails to the Fall River are adjacent to private property. Please be considerate of our neighbors and not park cars on their lots or on their private driveways, and please stay on the trails until you are on Deschutes National Forest Land.

The trail to the Fall River Fish Hatchery is not always open; please check with the Hatchery before you walk over there.

Thank you.