ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION
ARCATA CITIZENS FOR RESPONSIBLE HOUSING, INC.
A California Non-Profit Mutual Benefit Corporation

The undersigned, a City of Arcata resident, property owner, or business owner, desires to become an "associate member" of the Arcata Citizens for Responsible Housing, Inc., ("ACRH") a California non-profit mutual benefit corporation established for the specific purpose of promoting responsible housing developments within the City of Arcata.

- The goal of ACRH is to ensure responsible housing and development in Arcata, and to oppose developments like The Village Project, as currently proposed.
- If requested by a member, notification will be sent by email about ACRH housing policy decisions, upcoming meetings of the ACRH membership, relevant City of Arcata Planning Commission and City Council meetings.
- Decisions by the ACRH will be made by its Board of Directors, (John Bergenske, Julie Vaissade-Elcock and Erik Jules) based on input from ACRH's associate members.
- There are no membership fees, although all members are encouraged to donate funds that will be needed to address issues related to creating a viable alternative to the Village Project.
- A member can resign any time by sending an email to arcataCRH@gmail.com

By signing below, the applicant acknowledges and agrees that he or she is applying to become an "associate member" of ACRH and that his or her membership is governed by this application form and any amendments made hereto by the Board of Directors of ACRH from time to time. If you check the box below your membership will not be disclosed on the ACRH website.
