LOVE

So hold each other close, cherish every moment, and never forget the love that brought you together. May your journey be filled with happiness, adventure, and endless love.

A romantic close-up of a man and a woman in traditional Indian wedding attire. The man, on the left, wears a red and gold patterned kurta and glasses, leaning in to kiss the woman on the cheek. The woman, on the right, has long dark hair and wears a gold and beige sari with intricate embroidery. They are both smiling warmly at each other. The background is dark, with faint, stylized golden figures of deities or dancers visible behind them. A semi-transparent grey box in the upper right contains a quote in white serif font.

“LOVE IS NOT JUST LOOKING AT EACH OTHER, IT’S LOOKING IN THE SAME DIRECTION.”

PLANNING FOR POOL PARTY?

Pool parties are one of the newest ways to make your summer wedding stand out. You can have a cocktail party at the pool or conduct a modern sangeet ceremony with a pool party.

You can have the pool party a day before the wedding, just for the special guests, the closest ones. Or you can have the pool party for the entire guest list at the wedding.

FUN GAMES@POOL

To ensure that people are interacting and having oodles of fun at your party, consider adding some pool party games. Some popular options include treasure hunt, dodge ball with water balloons, tug of war, water transfer relay race, and frisbee toss

the HALDI

The Haldi ceremony is a treasure trove of good memories and great pictures! It's a perfect blend of tradition and fun, where laughter, leg-pulling, camaraderie, and the pungent, tangy whiff of turmeric fill the air.

How the Trends Are Leading the Charge

Interview by Neil Tran Photography by Howard Ong

Trends are something that drives this world to move forward and make new breakthroughs. This is a fact that is happening in today's world. To take advantage of these moments, renowned fashion designer Isabel Mercado always puts forward creative ideas from the latest trends.

While trends can come and go, fashion that emerges from these trends can always have a chance to make a comeback, says Mercado. Therefore, she is never afraid even though the fashion she designs can seem seasonal.
