ABOUT THIS EVENT

The Canadian Pharmacists Association's (CPhA) National Conference – Canada's premier gathering of pharmacists and related health care professionals – is an excellent opportunity to connect and interact with more than 450 delegates from across Canada who are involved in all aspects of pharmacy practice.

Why participate?

- Learn about the most up-to-date therapeutic information to support your pharmacy practice
- Gain greater insight into the people, places and issues shaping pharmacy practice of the future
- Discover new products and services from exhibitors during the trade show
- Network with other pharmacists and health care professionals

Who attends?

- Community pharmacists, most of whom are pharmacy owners
- Corporate and consulting pharmacists
- Hospital pharmacists
- Pharmacists in family practice settings, long-term care facilities, government and military institutions
- Academic and research pharmacists
- New practitioners, students and interns
- Health care administrators
- National and provincial association members
- Health care professionals in related fields

Keynote Speaker

Saturday, June 2

John Furlong, OC, OBC

Chief Executive Officer
Vancouver 2010 Winter Games

www.JohnFurlong.ca

John Furlong created the vision and led the team that bid for, organized and staged the highly successful Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games.

A visionary goal-setter, Furlong's stories of the challenges in bringing the Games to Vancouver and executing what are recognized by the International Olympic Committee as the most successful Winter Games ever, will motivate and inspire you. Furlong has been described as a passionate Canadian with an outstanding message that will encourage you to incorporate the lessons he learned through his experiences into your work environment.

Continuing education units (CEUs) for educational programs will be obtained from the Canadian Council on Continuing Education in Pharmacy (CCCEP). A CEU tracking form will be provided at the conference.

Conference Workbook Goes Green!

To reduce our environmental footprint, CPhA will now produce only electronic editions of the conference workbook. A link will be sent to you, and a version for download will be available on the web page before the conference.

INVITATION FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Canadian Pharmacists Association, I invite you to learn, network and share at our 100th national conference in beautiful Whistler, BC. Some of the most dramatic changes in pharmacy over the past century are happening right now: expanded scope of practice, new technology, changing business models and health care system reform.

With so much going on in our profession I challenge you to own your day! Take charge of your career and empower yourself to make the most of the opportunities being presented by these exciting changes. Make the most of your membership in our pharmacy community.

Our 2012 conference is a perfect place to start or to continue on your journey.

Learn more about issues and events shaping pharmacy today, and engage in professional development to support your daily practice.

Network with new contacts and reconnect with old friends. Find out what's happening in the field at our trade show and mingle with others in health care during the social events held throughout the conference.

Share in what others have experienced, starting with our keynote speaker John Furlong, Chief Executive Officer of the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Games. His stories will motivate and inspire you. Then engage in a stimulating debate as part of our closing plenary.

While in Whistler, take advantage of the many and varied activities offered at this stunning mountain resort with our Companion Program for family and friends.

See you in Whistler!

Jody Shkrobot
CPhA President 2011–2012

The How-To of Managing Diabetes... A Prescription for Pharmacists

Thursday, May 31: 1730–2100

and Friday, June 1: 0830–1600

9 CEUs (You must attend both days to obtain CEUs)

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Expand your role in helping patients better manage their diabetes! CPhA's interactive diabetes management workshop will train you to better understand, communicate with and improve the health of individuals with diabetes. Developed by pharmacists, certified diabetes educators and other health care professionals, this 9-CEU workshop covers the following topics:

- Pathophysiology
- The teaching-learning process
- Nutrition therapy
- Physical activity
- Antihyperglycemic agents
- Insulin therapy
- Chronic complications

Participants receive assessment forms, screening tools, information handouts and access to the Diabetes Strategy for Pharmacists support forum (www.diabetespharmacistsforum.ca).

Workshop registration fees are separate from CPhA conference registration fees.

CPhA members or non-members also registered for the conference: $125

CPhA members, workshop only: $200

Non-members, workshop only: $400

Fees are subject to HST and include Thursday evening break, Friday breakfast, lunch and breaks.

Pre-registration required. No walk-ins.

This workshop is a component of the Diabetes Strategy for Pharmacists and was developed with funding from the Public Health Agency of Canada under the Canadian Diabetes Strategy.

Due to concurrent scheduling you may attend only one of these pre-conference workshops.

Smoking Cessation Workshop

Quit Using and Inhaling Tobacco

Friday, June 1: 0830–1600

6 CEUs

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

Expand your role in patient care! CPhA's interactive QUIT workshop will teach you how to offer smoking cessation services in your pharmacy. Enhanced and reaccredited in 2009, this 6-CEU workshop covers the following topics:

- Cessation principles
- Addiction and its implications
- Pharmacotherapy and behavioural change strategies
- Counseling process
- Creating a smoking cessation program in your pharmacy

Participants receive assessment forms, diaries, follow-up questionnaires, access to the QUIT support forum (www.quitforum.ca) and the opportunity to have their pharmacy highlighted in the QUIT Locator Tool.

Workshop registration fees are separate from CPhA conference registration fees.

CPhA members or non-members also registered for the conference: $75

CPhA members, workshop only: $125

Non-members, workshop only: $250

Fees are subject to HST and include breakfast, lunch and breaks.

Pre-registration required. No walk-ins.

QUIT is a component of the Smoking Cessation Strategy for Pharmacists and was developed with funding from Health Canada under the Federal Tobacco Control Strategy.

Select a coach departure time that is 5 hours ahead of your flight departure time to ensure you are at the airport with sufficient time to check-in and clear security.

Pharmacist of the Year: Dr. David Gardner

Congratulations to Dr. David Gardner, 2012 Pharmacist of the Year.

This award recognizes a pharmacist who demonstrates leadership and exemplifies the evolution of the pharmacy profession toward an expanded role in health care.

Dr. Gardner is a professor of psychiatry at Dalhousie University in Halifax, NS, with appointments in both the department of psychiatry, faculty of medicine, and the college of pharmacy, faculty of health professions.

Find out what makes Dr. Gardner so outstanding and celebrate our other award winners. Join us Saturday, June 2, as we recognize the best in pharmacy at the CPhA Awards Ceremony and Reception.

Pharmacy Practice Innovation Showcase

New this year – an opportunity to hear from ordinary pharmacists providing extraordinary service. The showcase allows health care providers to display and explain creative approaches to facilitate advances in pharmacy and foster positive patient outcomes. Learn, network and share in this innovative session.
