POINT OF INTEREST (POI) NOTICE (Used when infringement is detected)

GENERAL DIRECTIVE

All data, information, images, or any other physical, virtual, digital, or "other" rendering or representation of the Identified Asset is reserved for the exclusive use of the Stakeholders. Any use, access to, or claimed ownership of, the data and information (hereinafter "DAI") rendered by, or extracted from, the Identified Asset is strictly prohibited.

SPECIFIC RESTRICTIONS

[ENTITY NAME] shall not use the DAI rendered by the Identified Asset to instruct, guide, train, or supplement its research, development, or training activity (collectively "research") related to the development of any artificial intelligence (AI). This restriction shall extend to research related to the development and creation of: AI, digital twin technology, human digital twin technology, humanoid hologram technology, supply chain management technology, data analytics, data forecasting, predictive planning technologies, augmented reality environments, game environments, or any other data-derived technologies. Any deliverables, reports, results, feedback, reactions, or similar output (collectively "output") produced, rendered, or delivered using the DAI of the Identified Asset shall constitute an infringement upon the intellectual property and proprietary rights (collectively, "IPR") of the Identified Stakeholders. To fulfill the terms of this notice, [ENTITY NAME] shall immediately designate as "critical infrastructure" any work product produced by the Identified Asset during the time of their employment or engagement.

This designation shall extend to the DAI of the asset which may be identified using any of the following titles, roles, or functions: "Lead" "Qualified Lead" "Interviewee" "Recruit" "Candidate" "Contractor" "Consultant" "Attorney" "Employee" "Subject Matter Expert" "Data Subject" or any other designation, title, or reference that could be associated with the Identified Asset.

[ENTITY NAME] shall be responsible for notifying all relevant Entities regarding the terms of this Notice. Notice Only obligations extend to all Entities with access to the DAI of the Identified Asset, including all Entities with authorized access to the Identified Asset's DAI by virtue of a valid and signed contract, including an employment agreement. All entities involved in the processing of the DAI of the Identified Asset are hereby notified that any further use, access to, or claimed ownership of, such DAI shall constitute intellectual infringement upon the rights of the Stakeholders. A violation of this notice shall be subject to immediate denial of access.
