

Longcroft Allotment Association

We currently hold personal data of our Members to conduct our business as an Allotment Association. We need positive permission from Members to contact you with additional information, including our newsletter.

When we contact you by email we will use blind copies so that members can only see their own email address.

With your consent we can also supply your details to the following organisations:

National Allotment Association. The association has the appropriate insurance cover in place but the NAS offers members personal liability cover.

To benefit from this free insurance cover the NAS require your name, address and email.

All tenants, joint tenants and associate members are covered by this insurance^ if they agree to their details being supplied to the NAS.

Kings Seeds. If you wish to have direct delivery from Kings, they need your address details on their order form.

We do not share your personal details with other third parties.

If you wish to be contacted by the LAA please complete the following form, setting out which information you would like to receive, and return it to our Membership Secretary by either:-

- Email to email@longcroftallotmentassociation.org
- or leave your form at the shop.

^ The insurance covers personal liability, up to £50,000 for accidental injury to any person or accidental loss or damage to property, and legal cover in respect of such claims
