

Bob Hendrickson (2016)

Oct 12, 2016: Sexual Assault and Due Process on the College Campus

Feb 10, 2020: The Conflict Between Political Correctness, First Amendment Speech and Academic Freedom

Dec 11, 2024: First Amendment Rights and Protests

Bob Hendrickson was born and raised in Fargo, North Dakota. He earned a BS in zoology from North Dakota State University, an MED Degree at Indiana University, Bloomington and a DED degree majoring in Higher Education Administration with a minor in Law. He held administrative positions in Student Affairs at the University of Wisconsin -Whitewater and Northwestern University. He held faculty positions in Higher Education Administration at Montana State University and The University of Virginia. In 1984 he and his family moved to State College to become an Associate Professor in Education. While at Penn State he served as Professor in Charge of the Higher Education Program, Department Head of Education Policy Studies, and Associate Dean for Research and Graduate Programs. He retired as an Emeritus Professor in 2013. Bob and his wife Linda, who taught in the State College Area School District, have 2 sons and 4 grandchildren. Bob's hobbies include wine making, woodworking and building historic model ships.

