

Charles Maxin (2020)

Recording Secretary – 2022-2025

Mar 10, 2021: Cholesterol, Hyperlipidemia and Treatments: Physician's View

Charles Maxin was born in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania and grew up in Robinson Township in Allegheny County. He graduated from Montour High School June, 1966. He followed football players Chuck Burkhardt, Penn State quarterback and Ted Kwalick, tight end San Francisco 49ers, to Penn State in 1966, but was not a football player. He earned a BS degree in chemical engineering, graduating in June, 1970. He then attended Jefferson Medical College and was granted a MD degree in June, 1974. He married Cathelia (Tuffy) Clay Maxin in 1974 and moved to Wilmington, Delaware for a three-year residency in Family Medicine. They moved back to State College in 1977 and he practiced family medicine for the next 38 years. He is semi-retired, working one day a week in the Geisinger clinic in Bellefonte and one day a week at Centre Volunteers in Medicine in State College. Tuffy and Charles are the parents of twin girls, Kelsey Thomas Maxin and Halley Clay Maxin.

