

ATTRIBUTES OF A HEALTHY CLUB

1. The club meets in an appropriate venue.
2. Food and service are of high quality.
3. Club maintains a welcoming, collegial culture.
4. Members are regularly encouraged to bring guests.
5. Guests are cordially introduced.
6. Guests' visits are followed up by offering a membership packet with application.
7. There is effective club leadership.
8. There is a succession plan for enlisting new officers.
9. Regular Board meetings are held.
10. There is a functioning membership committee.
11. All programs for the coming year are in place before the new club year begins.
12. At least one officer is technically savvy and responsible for entering information into the IATC database.
13. Monthly reports are entered into the database in a timely manner.
14. The Torch Talks are well crafted and presented.