Where in the World...

From New Years Eve through New Years Day, Tokyo Disneyland celebrates the new year with a parade. They call this the "Celebration Parade" which began in 1992. Their floats have become so popular that they were also used for other holidays like Easter, Christmas, and Halloween. At midnight, they count down from 20 seconds; then they continue with the parade. Many characters are in it including Hercules, A Bug's Life, Roger Rabbit, Hunchback of Notre Dame, Monsters Inc, Tarzan, Winnie the Pooh, Toy Story, Lilo and Stitch and much more. Tokyo Disney has hosted all of the New Year's parades from 1994 until 2011. Then the event was moved to Disneyland Paris, where new characters were introduced. "Akemashite omedetou"! This means Happy New Year in Japanese!

How's it Possible...

In 1972, Roald Dahl created the character Willy Wonka, and it was that year that the Willy Wonka trademark was registered. "Willy Wonka" is an adaptation of the 1964 novel "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" by Roald Dahl himself. It is about a kid named Charlie Bucket who finds a golden ticket in a chocolate bar. Charlie visits Willy Wonka's chocolate factory along with four other children from around the world. The movie Willy Wonka made 4.5 million dollars and was successful enough to have its own patent. Now that's a lot of chocolate to go around!

When Did That Happen...

On January 1, 1892 Ellis Island officially opened. Seventeen-year-old Annie Moore became the first person to arrive from County, Cork, Ireland. Ellis Island is located in the New York Harbor Hudson River, between New York and New Jersey, and can only be reached by boat. Ellis Island opened to serve as a place where millions of people could come to America and become a citizen. It officially closed in 1954 and is now a national historic site.

That's Incredible!

It's been six years since Disney's Frozen became the highest grossing animated film of all time. Then six years later Frozen 2 became the highest grossing film than its first film. Frozen had become the biggest animated film since the Lion King. In 1994, The Lion King was an instant classic, but now Elsa and her friends have stolen the title. Frozen and Frozen 2 is the story of two princess sisters who got separated from the world and each other. Frozen has gone on to win two Oscars for best animated feature and best original song for "Let it go." The music of the film is thrilling and the dancing is lovely! Make sure you sing and dance with your loved ones to keep you warm during this "frozen" season!

Pet of the Month!

The Town of North Hempstead Animal Shelter

Bindi is a two year old Beagle mix and is a special girl looking for an equally special person to share her life with. She is a sweet, quiet, and gentle soul, but she is nearly blind and would need a home that will accommodate her needs. Bindi is also touch and sound sensitive, a home with young children will not be suitable for her. Despite her challenges, she is still a happy girl she absolutely LOVES to eat, and knows a whole bunch of tricks and commands! She's also a "nap queen." She gets along well with other mild mannered dogs that will respect her disability.
