Where in the World...

On a hot day in June, the Bethlehem Police Department, of Pennsylvania, were called for help about a bear taking a dip in a backyard pool. The previous morning, the police received multiple reports of a black bear running through the residents' yards, in the Cloverleaf Street area. The bear decided to take a dive and a swim in the resident's backyard before being corralled by the police and Pennsylvania Game Commission Officers. The police managed to relocate the bear far away from human contact, in North Central Pennsylvania. The Police call this swampy area the "pool for bears," where there are hundreds of acres of woodlands and lakes for the bear to happily roam free.

How's it Possible...

Did you know Americans purchase nearly 600 million pieces of candy per year, for Halloween. An incredible 90 million pounds of chocolate candy is sold during Halloween week compared to other holidays. In 2018, Halloween candy sales were expected to bring in 9 billion dollars. The candy industry counts on us to celebrate with sugar for a huge portion of it's annual sales. Revenue has increased by 2.1 billion dollars since 2015. Last year, the average purchaser spent $86.79. We can only imagine what is spent on Halloween costumes from adults, children, and even pets! Think it is safe to say the holiday revenue will increase this year, especially if some towns change Halloween's date to the last Saturday of the month.

When Did That Happen...

Who would have thought that so many epic events happened in October?

- The Television series "The Twilight Zone" premeired. (1959)
- Walt Disney World opened in Orlando, Florida. (1971)
- Peanuts comic strip by Charles Schultz first appeared in newspapers. (1950)
- Frank Robinson becomes major leagues baseball's first African American manager for the Cleveland Indians. (1974)
- The World Series was broadcast on radio for the first time. (1921)
- Space Shuttle Challenger astronaut Kathryn Sullivan became the first American woman to walk in space. (1984)
- Martin Luther King Jr was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. (1964)
- "I Love Lucy" premiered on television. (1951)

Who Knows...

1. What 8 letter word can have a letter taken away and it still makes a word? Take another letter away and it still makes a word. Keep on doing that until you have one letter left. What is the word?

2. Re-arrange the letters, O O U S W T D N E J R, to spell just one word. What is it?

That's Incredible!

We have all heard of and feared monsters like Dracula and Freddy Krugger. But there is an even scarier monster, the legendary Native American spiritual creature, called the Wendigo. Legend has it this cold climate Native American monster was once a hunter who got lost in the woods. During a brutally cold winter, his intense hunger drove him to a monstrous appetite. The Wendigo looks like a human but has the head of a deer, sharp claws and skin stretched tight across its body. The Native American Indians describe the Wendigo as the most terrifying. Some believe that one becomes a Wendigo, from a sort of extreme cabin fever, in which the delusions from isolation ultimately turn you into a monster. The Wendigo is one of the most interesting monsters in human folklore history.

That's Trendy!

In the fall, as the leaves are turning brown and the weather gets chilly, we will be inside more often. Which means that we can eat or make delicious fall foods. Here are some trendy and delicious things to cook in October: Honey pumpkin cornbread muffins, Quinoa with caramelized butternut squash and roasted brussels sprouts, Mediterranean baked sweet potatoes, Crockpot balsamic pork roast, Sweet potato pie cupcakes with marshmallow frosting, Chicken-fried steak fingers with creole mustard sauce, Vanilla bean sweet potato waffles, Smoked gruyere butternut soup with spicy, and Apple pie biscuits!

That's Funny!

Why did the gum cross the road?

-Because it was stuck to the chicken's foot.

Why didn't the skeleton go skydiving?

-It didn't have the guts.

I invented a new word.

-Plagiarism!

That's Twisted!

Silly Sally swiftly shooed seven silly sheep. The seven silly sheep silly Sally shooed, shilly-shallied south. These sheep shouldn't sleep in a shack, sheep should sleep in a shed.

That's Inspirational!

Pet of the Month!

The Town of North Hempstead Animal Shelter

Petey is a 6 year old Pomeranian mix with a lot of love to give! Once Petey gets to know you, your lap will be his favorite place to be. He also loves to play with other dogs, so if you are looking to hang out at the dog park he might be the buddy for you! Petey is playful and cuddly but he can sometimes guard his food and treats, therefore he is not recommended for a family with small children.
