Where in the World...

The region that is currently called India is said to be one of the oldest living civilizations. India is about 5,000 years old. India's nickname is the "Land of the Hindus." There are over 1.3 billion people that live in India. India is very diverse in culture and has many religions. The nature in India is very beautiful. They have many mountains and two famous main rivers, the Indus and Gandus rivers. In India, you can have a variety of delicious food. While most Indians don't eat meat, they create wonderful recipes using vegetables, seafood, beans, spices, rice, tea & coffee. India is a great place to visit to capture many photos. They have plenty of ancient of Asian architectural buildings and sculptures. Be sure to also check out a festival, because music and dancing are very popular in India. It is culture to dance in a crowd at weddings, and parties, and who doesn't love to dance?!

What's Going on Here...

Nov. 30: Enjoy fun entertainment and special holiday offerings from nearly 50 stores in Port Washington at the "Port Holiday Magic" event. Before you click and buy, give Port a try! Come on down to Main Street and shop locally. Bring the kids and arrive on Main Street early as Santa will make his grand entrance on a fire truck at 1:00pm (from PW Blvd down to the Bay). After his grand entrance, Santa will be passing out candy canes on the Main Street Trolley until 4:00pm. There will be plenty of free and fun entertainment for the whole family.

How's it Possible...

Did you know that 46 million turkeys are eaten on Thanksgiving Day? According to the National Turkey Federation, they reported that 88 percent of Americans eat turkey on Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is reported to be America's second favorite holiday. The average turkey weighs 30 pounds, and Americans will consume 1.4 billion pounds of turkey this Thanksgiving. Now that's a lot of turkey!

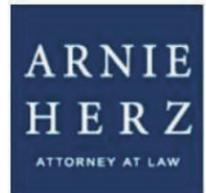

When Did That Happen...

On November 26, 1922, British archaeologist Howard Carter and his workmen discovered the tomb of King Tutankhamen in the Valley of the Kings in Egypt. King Tut was a king of ancient Egypt. He found the burial room hidden in the debris near the entrance of the nearby tomb of King Ramses VI. He entered the interior chambers of the tomb with fellow archaeologist Lord Carnarvon to find it miraculously intact. Carter carefully explored the four-room tomb over several years, uncovering an incredible collection of several thousand objects. His golden mask is on display at the Egyptian Museum in Cairo, but the Tutankhamun collection will eventually move to the Grand Egyptian Museum, or GEM, slated to open next year. The exhibitions attracted over one million visitors, and in each there were less than 55 objects on show.

That's Incredible!

Remember the times where you knew Big Bird, Elmo, and Abby Cadabby? Well, if you know these cuties, then you know their show "Sesame Street". This amazing has won 203 times at the Emmy awards. That is the biggest record for any daytime show! They won both primetime and daytime Emmy awards. Sesame Street began on November 10, 1969 and we will never forget where we learned our ABC's and 123's and how to be friends. It is the longest running children's television show that started on PBS and now it is on HBO. It has also won 11 Grammys, and 3 Behind The Voice Actors Awards. Big Bird and Abby Cadabby are so popular that their balloons were in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade for so many years. Talk about breaking records!

That's Trendy!

You never know what to expect at the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade. However here is a list of balloons and floats that are trending this year. Normally, Nickelodeon characters do not debut until years after premiering on television. We predict Lincoln Loud of the "Loud House" may appear, as well popular characters like Pikachu, Spongebob Squarepants, and Dora the Explorer. Sonic the Hedgehog and Super Mario Brothers are popular video game characters. They are both rumored to be in the parade. The Super Mario video game turns 35 this year. Sonic may also appear at the parade because he was in his own movie in February. These are just predictions but you will have to tune in to find out!

That's Funny!

Pet of the Month!

The Town of North Hempstead Animal Shelter

Shadow is a 7 year old Jindo mix with an adventurous spirit! He loves to spend time outside, go for long walks on the trail, and playing with tennis balls. He is a seasoned pro at our agility course- he especially loves the tunnel! Shadow can be aloof at times, which is typical of the Jindo breed, but he absolutely enjoys the company of his human companions. He can't resist a good scratching session! Shadow gets along well with dogs of his own size, but would do best in a home without small sized dogs, cats, or other small pets.
