Construction documentation

One file, replacing thousands of photographs

Effective communication with key stakeholders

Permanent, annotated records at every milestone

*[With Matterport]
we are now able to capture construction conditions for documentation on a single file and share that information as needed as opposed to managing 30,000+ individual photographs."*

As-built drawings

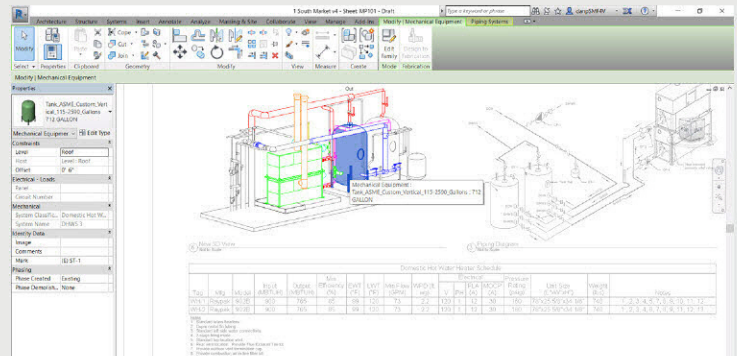

Easily create point clouds and OBIs

Import into any CAD software

Take measurements from every angle

The Matterport Pro camera has allowed us to complete designs in hours that would have otherwise taken weeks."
