

Front of House Junior

Just getting started in the workforce? We welcome applications for a number of entry-level roles Front of House. Whether looking to launch a career at The Smoke Pit, or just a side job to help pay the bills while studying, we offer extensive on-the-job training to support you on your journey.

We understand the struggle you may face juggling study and trying to hold down a job. That's why we are putting you in the driver's seat: with 4-hr shifts available every night Tuesday-Sunday, you can have the confidence to propose a roster that works for you. For the right applicant, there is a definitely the opportunity to grow in the business.

About Us:

Opening our doors in Thomastown 4 years ago, we are a casual and family friendly dine-in and take-away restaurant with a fully licenced bar and dedicated function / private dining space. We offer lunch and dinner 6 days a week, and we are growing fast!

We offer:

- Award wage
- Uniform provided
- Supportive environment with great systems and on-the-job training to help you in your role

About You:

- Well-presented and punctual with a solid work ethic
- Attention to detail
- Able to follow instructions
- Willingness to learn and engage with diners

About the Role:

- Bagging and handing-out take-away and Uber / DoorDash orders
- Clearing tables
- Filling cutlery stations
- Restocking drinks fridges
- Making thickshakes and plating up desserts (pie and ice-cream front of house, no work in kitchen)
- Helping diners with requests for water glasses, salt & pepper, straws etc
- Helping to walk out dine-in orders to tables
- Rubbish management such as breaking up cardboard

If you think this job is the fit for you, please forward your resume to info@thesmokepit.com.au or phone Fano Konstandara on 0420 814 835 if you would like to discuss the role in further detail.