PRESS RELEASE

Palm Springs Modernizes the Comic Convention with Holy Grail Multiverse!

The new roaring twenties blast off with a paradigm shift in comic conventions.

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. - April 16, 2021 – The world’s only comic convention boldly blending pop culture and fandom with the Ancient Astronaut theory and metaphysics – truly the holy grail of conventions – will launch its inaugural edition Nov. 20-21 in Palm Springs, Calif. Comic conventions have been around since the 1970s, but Holy Grail Multiverse™ today represents a modern obsession like the Ancient Astronaut theory that puts it in a class of its own.

Holy Grail Multiverse is the creative explosion of Brad Toles, Owner and Executive Chef of Savoury’s Good Earth Cuisine, exclusive caterer of the Palm Springs Convention Center since 1996. “We love Palm Springs,” says Toles. “When COVID-19 decimated the hospitality industry, my team and I combined our passions with our assets and Holy Grail Multiverse was born as a way to bring tourism back to Palm Springs.” Supported by PS Resorts—Promoting Palm Springs Tourism Through Events—HGM CON21 aspires to over 9,000 attendees, and up to half a million views for the live-streamed gaming tournament.

HGM CON21—Where Fandom Meets Future Tech—is an IRL, Saturday-Sunday activation featuring vendors, an eSports arena, celebrity guests, a cosplay competition, speaker sessions, panels, the Instagrammable “Going Virtual” alley, and artistry demonstrations. Finally, Awaken HGM on Saturday night is designed to be an unforgettable evening with our special guests.

With more of your favorite special guests and cosplayers joining the roster daily, HGM CON21 is for people of all ages, from the original fans of Chariots of the Gods? to young gamers and budding superheroes! HGM CON21 line up to include:
