In Memoriam

JAMES GEORGE ARDUSER

November 28, 1940 - October 25, 1958

All who knew Jim, a fellow member of the 1959 senior class who was killed in an unfortunate farm accident, welcomed his friendly smile.

Jim was always willing to give a helping hand, and he was a friend to one and all.

He was president of the FFA and vice-president of the Student Council. He also played half-back on the football team.

MRS. GLADYS JOHNSTON

July 10, 1900 - September 3, 1957

Few teachers are as devoted to their profession as was Mrs. Gladys Johnston. Not only was she a devoted teacher but a devoted friend and neighbor as well.

Due to her untimely death the class of '59 was left temporarily without a home room teacher in their junior year. She had been their home room advisor in 1957. Mrs. Johnston's field was natural and social sciences.

JOHN J. MINGES, Superintendent

TO THE CLASS OF 1959:

Best wishes for a wonderful future. I am sure that if you put forth the effort throughout life that you have shown in your senior-year projects, your success is assured. On behalf of the faculty, I compliment you for being a fine class and a credit to your school and community.

Administration

1958 SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS: Wilbur Mangold, President Raymond Garner, Orvie McCright, Superintendent Minges, Dr. I. D. Ondler, Orie Long. Not present for the picture: Mrs. Leota Read, treasurer, and Philomena McAreavy, secretary.

HARRY E. BROWN
Secondary Principal

Unless there is learning there is no teaching. If we all strive to gain more knowledge each day, then we become students. When we become students, the task of the teacher is made easy. Always aim for a greater degree of skill and a richer, more plentiful storehouse of knowledge.

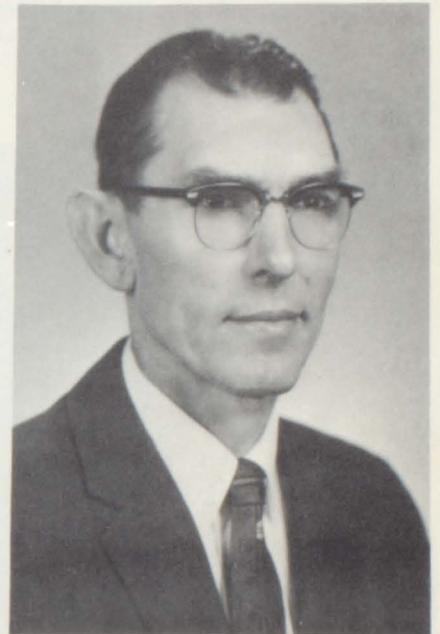

To the Members of the Senior Class of 1959:

For six years I have watched you increase in wisdom and in stature; and it is hoped, in favor of God and your fellow man.

This is a time of decision for each of you. For some, it means the end of formal education. For others, it means continued training. For all, it means accepting the duty that accompanies each right as an American citizen.

With this letter I wish the utmost in happiness and prosperity for each of you.

God's blessing on all your future endeavors.

Ellen Taylor Crowned 1958 Homecoming Queen

HOMECOMING QUEENS: During the hectic week of Homecoming each class took a few moments to nominate their queen candidate. Then on the morning of October 17, Homecoming Day, the entire student body voted for the girl who would reign at the dance and game.

Half-time brought the long awaited moment. Jean Dosedel, 1957 queen, removed her crown and robe; and Ellen Taylor, 1958 queen, was officially crowned and robed by the Coggon team captains.

James Arduser Memorial Award Presented

THE JAMES ARDUSER MEMORIAL AWARD was presented this year to Lyndon Dighton by coach Carney. This trophy, purchased through the athletic fund, is to be given annually to the outstanding senior letterman on the basis of sportsmanship, leadership, and perseverance.

As a tribute to the memory of Jim, the boys on the senior high football team bronzed the ball used in the Regis game (the last game Jim played). This ball was presented to Jim's parents.

Coach Carney says, "Even though many of the men on this year's team were green, they played very well. The offense was hampered by the loss of Lyndie, due to injuries, for much of the season."

With Cheers They Aim To Spark Each Game

The cheerleaders chosen at tryouts by the faculty and preceding cheerleaders have faithfully attended each game (sometimes battling rather cold temperatures) to spark it with cheers.

Not only have they attended the games, but they planned several pep meetings during the season with novel skits. Much practice is required to synchronize motions and to prepare new cheers.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS: Judy Wolfe (three years), Linda Kirkwood (two years), Dorothy Boone (one year), Beverly Vandaver (one year), Rochelle Cook (two years).

THE TRACK AND FIELD PROGRAM involves both indoor and outdoor practice before the scheduled meets, which are limited by the short season.

The main events of the season are the Quad-County Conference Meet at Monona, the Cornell Relays at Mt. Vernon, and the T. C. Relays at Cedar Falls.

Winter Turned Marching

Band Into Concert Band

With good leadership from dual majorettes, Nancy Smith and Sandy Price, marching band performed four half-time shows, marched at Vinton, for Sweet Corn Day, and performed in the Coggon Homecoming Parade.

Following the completion of football season, the band moved indoors to concentrate on more pleasing melodies. With the addition of the musician football players, the band developed into a smooth-working concert ensemble and presented three concerts.

The Christmas concert featured symphonic band arrangements of well-known carols, overtures, and concert marches. Good "pop" music with the emphasis on show tunes was stressed in the spring concert.

Other public demonstrations by the band included the ALL-AC Music Festival at Center Point, the Spring Music Contest, and, of course, the lively PEP BAND performances at the basketball games.

The Solace Of Song

Great is the comfort and unmeasurable the pleasure to those who possess good voices and who have the opportunity to sing in harmony with others.

Special events of this 1958-59 school year memorable to the vocal groups include: three concerts, the ALL-AG music festival at Center Point, and small group performances.

The Talent Of Voice

The Christmas concert composed of sacred selections attracted a large crowd. Three choral numbers were sung by the girls chorus followed by three selections from the mixed chorus.

The winter concert featured modern secular music, with emphasis on Broadway show tunes. Highlighting the spring "pops" concert were choral settings of popular favorites.

They Recorded '58-'59 School News

During this year the staff published Volume 35 composed of six issues of The Evergreen (the name chosen for the school paper 35 years ago). The unusual occurred when Mr. Hanson's English classes prepared all copy and layouts for issue No. 4. All other issues were the work of the staff with the co-operation of the advanced typing class to edit, type, and mimeograph.

Special help on journalism was given through a personal discussion with David Forsythe of SUI's Publications Department and the SUI Critical Survey, which gave this summary comment, "Much improved and outstanding newspaper. Congratulations Staff."

Editor Jo Ann turns the handle as Ellen Taylor slides off slip sheets.

The Future Of Farming

The Coggon Chapter of the Future Farmers of America numbered 39 members this year.

Activities have included watermelon sales at the Coggon Harvest Home Festival, roller skating parties, parent-son banquet, rodent contest, seed testing, State Corn picking contest, and various FFA contests.

Money-making projects were: mineral sales, candy sales, three-acre corn plot, skating parties, and the sow circle. The Chapter sold two purebred Hampshire gilts and sent two others out on the sow-circle plan. Roger Boss and Dennis Arduser have these two gilts.

The Fun Of Homemaking

The Coggon Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has 52 members this 1958-59 season. Mrs. Leo Freñch and Mrs. Lloyd Adams have been the chapter mothers for several years.

Ideas presented at the meetings consisted of a brother-sister panel discussion, talks on safety in the home, a visit from an exchange student, Irma Hoffren from Finland, and talks on budgeting money.

Good Music, Good Beginners, Good Results

Junior Band includes all grade and junior high instrumentalists who meet for one group rehearsal each week. Their public appearances were a winter and a spring concert.

Members who competed in the Grade and Junior High Music Festival at Manchester played either solos or in small groups. First place ribbons were won by (solos) Beverly Patton, Mary Minnis, George Balster, Frank Ceynar; (flute trio) Margaret Butschi, Sharon Pillard, and Ann Kinley; (clarinet quartet) Mary Minnis, Darla Garner, Beverly Hinton, and Sharon Redeker.

They Keep The Growing Going

Through the prompt but patient endurance of ten bus drivers and an equal number of well-kept busses are 350 students transported daily to Coggon Community School and to special activities.

Custodians Ralph Minehart and Clone Rutt, daily push those mops mile after mile cleaning away the dust and dirt brought into the halls of learning by 575 pairs of shoes and boots.

While food for the mind is the main objective of the school, food for the body is a necessity. Each day lunch for 400 is prepared and served by Mabel Hill (supervisor and book-keeper), Margaret Jane Luse, Wanda Gardner, Ethel Savage and Augusta Hunter.
