Special Highlights

Join Lenny & Mitch, on a personalized journey through Northern Poland, rich in history, culture, and breathtaking scenery. Explore Warsaw's royal landmarks and beautifully restored Old Town before traveling to the tranquil Masurian Lake District, with its charming towns and peaceful lakes. Share a memorable evening with a Kashubian family featuring traditional food, music, and folklore. Discover the fascinating history of Wolf's Lair, visit the magnificent Święta Lipka Basilica, and experience the unique charm of a former Teutonic castle. In Gdańsk, explore historic streets, amber craftsmanship, and the birthplace of the Solidarity movement. Enjoy the Baltic coast at Sopot, with its famous wooden pier. In medieval Toruń, the birthplace of Nicolaus Copernicus, explore a UNESCO-listed Old Town and experience the art of traditional gingerbread making. Conclude your adventure in vibrant Łódź, known for its industrial heritage, cultural attractions, and colorful street art. More than a sightseeing tour, this is an opportunity to experience the heart of Poland through authentic traditions, personal connections, and unforgettable memories.
