

ETHICS AND THE ASSESSOR

The Institute of Assessing Officers, affiliated with the New York State Assessors Association, presents a one-day seminar via WebEx.

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 27, 2021

This is an online class. A link to the presentation will be emailed to all registrants before January 27.

Instructor – Tom Frey, FIAO

Ethics and the Assessor is being offered to help local assessing officials understand the ethical dilemmas they may encounter during the normal course of their workday. Participants will learn about the laws that address ethics, including conflicts of interest of municipal officers and employees, RPTL Sec. 336, statement of disclosure for assessors, freedom of information laws, and open meeting laws. There will be real life question and answer sessions that will be explored through group discussions. An ethics course is required for all assessors and county directors who were elected, appointed, or reappointed within the last year.
