

ETHICS AND THE ASSESSOR - HYBRID

The Institute of Assessing Officers, affiliated with the New York State Assessors Association, presents a one-day seminar in person and via Zoom.

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., Friday, November 12, 2021

This is a hybrid class. Eight in-person seats are available on a first come, first served basis at the Liverpool office. For those attending online, a link to the presentation will be emailed before November 12.

If attending online, you must have a camera and microphone on your device to register for this class. The camera must be on at all times during the class. If you register and attend and do not have a microphone and camera, you will not receive credit and no refund will be given.

Instructor – Denise Trudell, IAO

Ethics and the Assessor is being offered to help local assessing officials understand the ethical dilemmas they may encounter during the normal course of their workday. Participants will learn about the laws that address ethics, including conflicts of interest of municipal officers and employees, RPTL Sec. 336, statement of disclosure for assessors, freedom of information laws, and open meeting laws. There will be real life question and answer sessions that will be explored through group discussions. An ethics course is required for all assessors and county directors who were elected, appointed, or reappointed within the last year.
