

REAL PROPERTY TAX LAW FOR THE ASSESSOR, PART I

The Institute of Assessing Officers, affiliated with the New York State Assessors Association, presents a one-day seminar via WebEx.

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., Monday, August 31, 2020

This is an online class. A link to the presentation will be emailed to all registrants before August 31.

Instructor – Tom Frey, FIAO

This course will be offered in two parts, while covering all of the Real Property Tax Law. Part I will discuss what assessors need to know about the RPTL from Article 1 to Article 7, including definitions, training, exemptions, judicial review, assessment roll requirements, and much more. Having knowledge of the Real Property Tax Law is of utmost importance for all assessors in New York. This class will definitely have something that everyone should be aware of. We will enhance the discussions with Opinions of Counsel that bring the law into everyday usage for assessors. Part 2 will cover Article 8 to Article 19, including county and state equalization, levy and collection of taxes, laws concerning schools and villages, consolidated assessing units, and more. Part II of this class will be offered online on September 21, 2020.
