

A LEGACY OF FAMILY, FUN & CHAMPIONSHIPS

As we eagerly approach our 75th Anniversary Celebration this Saturday, we can't help but look back at the incredible journey we've taken together.

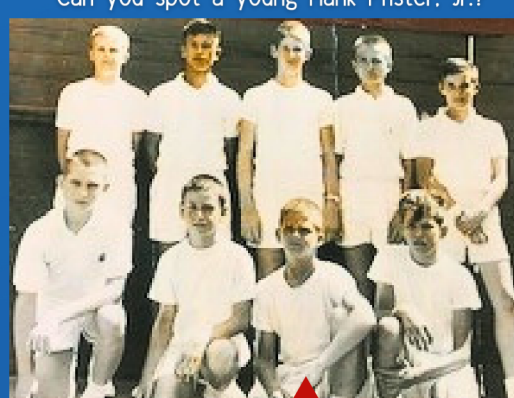

Hank
Court 4

We're thrilled guest speaker, Hank Pfister, Jr., is joining us for this landmark birthday. Hank's roots at BRC run deep.

As a junior, he served as a ball boy during the legendary 1965 Davis Cup match right here at BRC. Thirteen years later, he proudly represented our nation as a US Davis Cup Team member.

Can you spot a young Hank Pfister, Jr.?

He's the one with the big tennis dreams!

During the 1960s, his father, Hank Sr., created KCTA to support local tennis. A legacy Hank continues to honor today. From Bakersfield to the international stage, Hank has shone a bright light on the talent at BRC.

Every year, we have the privilege of honoring a member who embodies the giving spirit of The Racquet Club with the Steve Holloway Volunteer of the Year Award.

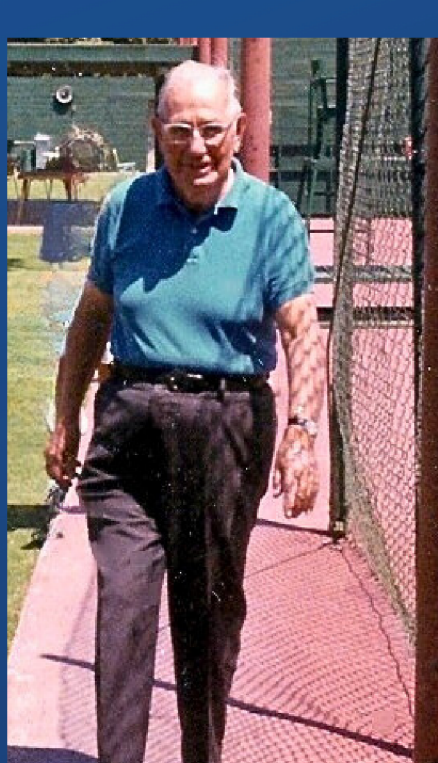

Craftsman,
Steve Holloway

Steve's deep connection to BRC began as he grew up playing tennis on our courts, quickly establishing himself as a top Kern County junior player. As a wedding gift, his father presented Steve with his own BRC membership.

Steve has been a cornerstone of our club for decades, tirelessly leading our Grounds Committee. His construction expertise and unwavering dedication have left an indelible mark, consistently enhancing and maintaining our club. Thanks to Steve's commitment, BRC remains the vibrant and beautiful place we all adore.

And in November, we'll celebrate this year's recipient of the Steve Holloway Volunteer of the Year Award, Nancy Marble.

Bakersfield's
Mr. Tennis
1973

Our founder, Lake Lovelace, whose dream of a tennis club in Bakersfield has thrived for an incredible 75 years. Today, we stand proud of how our members have continued to carry forward his vision, and we can only imagine the immense pride and happiness Lake would feel today. Lake's dream is alive and flourishing, all thanks to every one of you.

Together, this 75th Anniversary Celebration will be a moment to remember!
