'An antidote to the epidemic of loneliness': 19 Carter a haven for arts, community

Carol L. Costello

It was a Wednesday morning at 19 Carter in Berlin. The guests, who had come by for the weekly coffee hour, were gathered around two large wooden tables enjoying a warm beverage and fresh baked goods with their conversations.

We're pleased to share this lovely article from the Worcester Telegram & Gazette written by Carol Costello with photographs by Allan Jung that beautifully captures the essence of what we do at 19 Carter.

Coming up...

A poster for an 'ART & PLAY' workshop. The title is in large, bold, blue letters on a green oval background. Below it, text describes a 3-session workshop on expressive and playful florals using mixed media and collage. It mentions that supplies are provided and lists the dates (March 11, March 25, & April 8), time (6:30 - 8 PM), and cost ($120 for 3 sessions). Two examples of floral artwork are shown: a painting of purple tulips and a collage of various flowers in a vase. The background is orange with stylized floral shapes in blue, green, and red.
