

The Episcopal Church

EVENING

Prayer

From The Book of Common Prayer

Praying together in February 2025

If you are nervous
about leading prayer,
there is no reason to be.

There are two easy ways to Read/ Lead Evening Prayer.

By Book or By Web

Using Books

The prayers for Evening Prayer begin on page 115 of The Book of Common Prayer. There are some places where you can choose what scripture, collection, or suffrage you want.

The readings for the day can be found by referencing the lectionary in the back of the Book of Common Prayer. You will need a bible or a bible website to find the scripture readings, but the Psalms are found in the back of the Prayer-book in the Psalter. We are currently in the Daily Office Lectionary Year Two in the 4th Week of Epiphany- the readings for this week and next are found on page 947.

Using the Web

If you prefer not to flip pages and to have everything at your fingertips when leading Evening Prayer, you can visit the Mission Saint Clare website here (<https://www.missionstclare.com/english/February/whole/cal.html>). This is the link for the February liturgical calendar; scroll to the date and click "Evening."

Let us pray

Remembering where we see Christ each day-
like St Simeon