

Terms of Service

By using this website or enrolling in Thank Me Collective programs, you agree to the following:

Purpose of Services Thank Me Collective provides youth programs, caregiver support, and community resources. Information shared on this site is for educational purposes only.

Eligibility Services are designed for youth ages 8–16 and their parents/caregivers. Adults must provide accurate information when enrolling a child or opting in to communications.

Communication Consent By opting in, you agree to receive program updates, reminders, and resources. You may opt out at any time without affecting program participation.

User Responsibilities You agree to use our website respectfully, follow program guidelines, and avoid misuse of our communication tools.

Program Policies Participation requires completion of required forms and adherence to safety and behavior expectations.

Intellectual Property All content on this site belongs to Thank Me Collective and may not be used for commercial purposes without permission.

Privacy We protect your information and do not sell your data. See our Privacy Policy for full details.

Liability We are not responsible for technical issues, delays, or misuse of our website or tools.

Updates We may update these terms as our programs grow. Continued use of the site means you accept any changes.
