Baldwin Music Education Center Class Policies & Waivers

Missed Classes We do not give credits for missed classes. If a student misses a class, there are no rescheduled classes or refunds.

Refunds No refunds are given. Once the term begins, tuition is due in full.

Teacher Absences/Inclement Weather If a teacher misses a class, or canceled because of weather, the class will be rescheduled or an account credit will be given.

Waiver By enrolling in the BMEC/MLC program, you waive and release any and all rights and claims for damages you or your child may have against BMEC/MLC, its employees or representatives for any and all injuries suffered by you or your child in any activity sponsored by BMEC/MLC. And, you understand that photographs and/or videotapes of you or your family may be used for promotional and educational purposes by BMEC/MLC without compensation.

Special Programs

Account Credit Credits are applied to accounts when current account balances are paid in full. Account credits are given for the following:

Referral Credit: For every new family that you recommend, which has not been previously enrolled, you will receive a 10% credit. (For example, if you recommend three families, you will receive a 30% credit.) Note: You or your child must be enrolled at the time the new family enrolls to receive your referral credit and your credit will be given toward the next term.

Family Discount: If you have more than one child enrolled we will discount your total tuition 10%.

Family Days For all classes. Ask your teacher for details about your child's family day, held during the last class of the term.

How to Help Your Child Succeed...

A parent guide will be sent with your confirmation which will detail your role in your child's class. Communication with your teacher and consistent attendance will also help your child succeed.
