

Gary Newman

Treasurer

Gary and his wife, Lori

Gary and Lori Newman built their house in Camden Manor almost 30 years ago and have called it home ever since. They have two adult sons who live in La Grange, Kentucky.

Gary retired three years ago after a career in project management and business in the insurance industry. He enjoys Louisville Cardinals and Indiana Hoosiers sports and spending time with family.

Gary and Lori treasure the friends they have made here and hope to keep the neighborhood beautiful and welcoming to families.
