

Bina Jhaveri
Partnering Facilitator

Bina is a seasoned Internationally Certified Executive Coach with over 25 years of professional experience working with leaders, career professionals and teams helping them optimize their mindset, well-being, and peak performance. Clients discover how to navigate their authentic journey through evidence-based practices that bridge the gap from where they are to where they want to go.

She recently received the honor and is recognized in Marquis Who's Who of America 2020 for her contribution to the coaching industry and incredible worldwide impact. Her coaching style is precise, professional, supportive, and energized. Based in Los Angeles, California, Bina specializes in leadership development, effectively communicating, conflict resolution, Playing to Win, DEI&B, productivity, next-level action, cultivating strong relationships, inner-power, collaboration, team-play, living through vision and values, navigating uncertainty, imbuing emotional-intelligence, and so much more. She has served as a Mentor and Instructor for the International Coach Federation (ICF) Certified Coach Programs for over seven years and has Certificates in Humble Leadership: The Power of Relationships, Openness and Trust, Creating Psychological Safety for Diverse Teams, Creating a Great Place to Work for All amongst many others. Bina believes that asking insightful questions and coming from curiosity brings magic to conversations, program facilitation, and delivery as well as creating powerful connections and building authentic relationships. She receives stellar ratings from clients, teams, and participants consistently. Prior to becoming a Coach Facilitator, she spent 15 years in Corporate America within strategic marketing, project management, strategy, and leadership as well as serving on committees and spearheading special projects. Bina has an Executive Master's in International Business Management from the Indian Institute of Business Management Studies and a Bachelor of Arts from California State University, Fullerton. Her global experience has poised her to work on complex projects with diverse teams, guiding them on their iconic path towards mastery.