

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how Conscious Radio Network uses and protects any information that you give Conscious Radio Network when you utilize our sites and third party sites.

Conscious Radio Network is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using our sites, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

What we collect

We collect the following information:

- Name, job title or professional designation
- Contact information including email address, website URL's & social media URL's

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- Internal record keeping and episode archiving.
- We may use the information to improve our products and services.
- We may periodically send network newsletters, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.
- After scheduling, we would use your information to contact you to send you updates or confirmation notifications for your scheduled recording or broadcast.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Links to other sites would include: TidyCal®, wave.video®, YouTube®, Rumble®, Apple® Podcast, iHeart Radio®, Spotify®, Google Podcast®, LibSyn®, TuneIn Radio®, Facebook®, Instagram®, Twitter®, TikTok®, and affiliated or syndicated streaming television Channel(s).

Controlling your personal information

We will NEVER sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

There is no single principal data protection legislation in the United States (U.S.). Rather, a jumble of hundreds of laws enacted on both the federal and state levels serve to protect the personal data of U.S. residents. At the federal level, the Federal Trade Commission Act (15 U.S. Code § 41 et seq.)

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible, at the above address. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
