AESCWS "SuperSteer" Winners:

Cade White of Amador County &
Milena Martin of El Dorado County

Cade White is from Willow Springs 4-H and has been a member for 14 years. The Amador County Beef Carcass Contest results are in and at the top of the list is Cade White. He was awarded a check for his hard work. Garrett Wunschel from Willow Springs 4-H came in a close second. Congratulations to both of you!

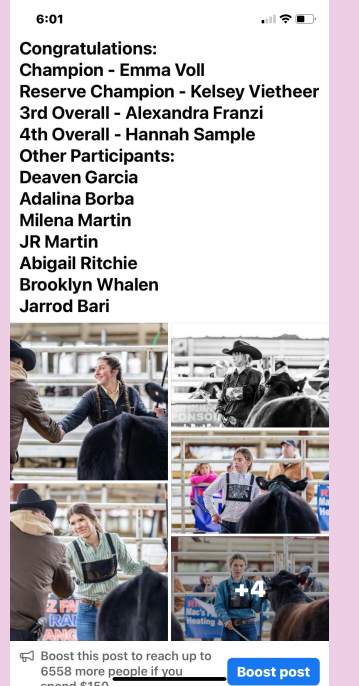

Robertson Ranches is a revered icon in the Quarter Horse World. Mary and Bradley Robertson have created an idyllic ranch in Plymouth, California with green rolling hills and towering oak trees, where their horses and Angus-Simmental cows graze on native forages in the Sierra Nevada foothills. And now Mary is realizing a life-long dream with their 2009 sorrel stallion, One Fine Vintage, whose barn name is "Vinnie".

Katherine is excelling as the AESCW President and is eager to share fresh ideas with the board, committees, and members. We appreciate her enthusiasm and vigor. We invite our members to express their interest in joining the board or becoming a committee chairperson.

AESCW board members and committee chair persons met at Pam

Howard's home on Feb 4, 2024 to plan our next Spring Luncheon, talk old business, plan new business, etc.

Highlighting a new AEscw member, Cristin Dingman. Welcome!

Can you guess who this 4-H member is? Give you a clue...she grew up to be a 4-H Community Leader!
