TEAGAN WUNSCHER &
RILEY RISTROM
2024 GRADUATES OF
AMADOR HIGH SCHOOL

YOU GO, GIRLS!!!!

During the month of June, there were graduations and the Sacramento County Fair!
So, here are some highlights...

(El Dorado County Fair was this month, too, but no photo bombs yet.)

Amador Scholarship night was a success!

Our Executive Director, John
Williamson and Foundation fund holders were there to present numerous scholarships
to deserving students.
Thanks to our generous donors,
Amador Community

Foundation granted over $208,000 in scholarships to both schools.

$209,000.00 in scholarships earned by 92 graduates of Amador high school! 🎓 Brother Mike Spinetta with newly formed Laura Spinetta endowment 🙏❤️ I'm Representing the president of the Amador Farm Bureau with director Amy White #livelife

Lots of scholarships awarded :-)

Teagan is off to Chico State University this fall!!

Oh Gentry... this girl and her Herfs! She's a goal getter ❤️

She popped back and forth between barns with lots of success this year. Super proud to bring home banners for animals she bred!

I'm posting this because EVERYBODY should have a picture of a little girl reading to a young calf in their news feed. It ought to be a law.

Our livestock team competed at the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo State FFA Judging Finals this weekend. We are so proud of all they accomplished this judging season!

*To this day, this glow of moonlight can still be seen on Cattle Dogs ("the Bentley star")

Teagan Wunschel awarded AESCW Scholarship for 2024.
