Dear AES Cattlewomen,

Happy Spring Cattlewomen, or is it early Summer. With the fickle weather, the horses started to shed, then it got cold again, the effect is spots on horses that aren't spotted. 'Tis the season for the last brandings, preg. checking and feed evaluations as we look towards decisions about when to market this year. The pastures and hillsides are holding the gorgeous lush green grass for a few more weeks as the cows and calves are looking healthy.

This month, we provided swag to the AES Cattlemen's Jackpot Showmanship winners and each AES-bred exhibitor. Rielle and I traveled to Winters, Ca. to represent the unit at the CCW Spring Meeting. (details will be shared at the upcoming Spring Luncheon)
I'm looking forward to the upcoming Spring meeting with Madison Kindberg (member) as our guest speaker.

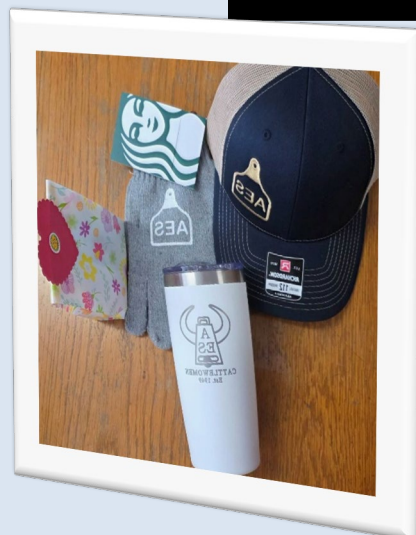

Feel free to contact me by phone 209-419-0808 or email: Kussmak@flc.losrios.edu to share ideas, ask a question or vent if you need to.

Warm wishes for healthy families and livestock,
Katherine

AES Cattlewomen gave a generous sponsorship to the "WAY OUT WEST RANCH HORSE SHOW"

Rielle & Katherine crafted 17 award bags for the girls & boys that participated in the AES Cattlemen's Jackpot Show/AES Bred Class. They were delivered with 8 brand-new blankets awarded to the Showmanship winners in each age group on both days of competition.

What a great number of kids that bought locally bred animals for the surrounding summer Fairs this Year?

Dear AES Cattlewomen,

Thank you for sponsoring junior Heifer showmanship. This is ~~was~~ my favorite show to come too. This was also my first buckel. Also thanks for the blanket.

Sincerely,

Rode Gradel
