

Cardston Agricultural Society Member's Code of Conduct

This code establishes standards of ethical conduct for all members of the Ag Society. As a member you are expected to comply with this code and seek clarification of its content if required. Generally speaking, any conduct which is dishonest, illegal, or unauthorized will not be tolerated and may be grounds for disciplinary action as per the Ag Society by-laws. As a member of the Ag Society, you are a representative or an ambassador of the Ag Society and as such, privileges of the Ag Society may be revoked if your conduct is not in compliance with this code.

All members of the Cardston Ag Society accept and commit to:

1. Act with integrity; meaning to be honest and accountable for their actions as members of the Ag Society,
2. Be cooperative, courteous, and respectful in dealings with all members of the Ag Society staff, Directors and individuals attending Society events and/or property.
3. Serve the Ag Society by attending organizational events, general meetings, and functions, making decisions in the best interests of the Agricultural Society and community.
4. Comply with and follow Ag Society by-laws and rules and regulations
5. Treat Ag Society building, grounds and property respectfully and with care.
6. Honour scheduled periods of facility use by being punctual and not extending use into other's scheduled time or interfering with their rightful use of Ag Society facilities.
7. Honour other members during and outside of meetings by appreciating the value and diversity that each other's experience and perspective brings to our organization.
8. Speak positively of the Agricultural Society, promote its values and growth.
9. Avoid conflicts of interest by informing the Board whenever there is a perceived conflict and abstain from motions, discussions, or decision making in regard to that matter.
10. Have no contact with illicit substances while at society grounds, or in attendance at any society sponsored event in the community.

By signing below, you acknowledge reading, understating, and agreement to comply with the Cardston Agricultural Society Code of Conduct and have signed this voluntarily and of your own free will.
