

Hello!

I am so excited to introduce myself! My name is Melissa Bryant and I reside in central Oklahoma. I hold my Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership. I have 18 years of experience in the field of adult training education and specialized leadership development. I am optimistic I have the skills and qualifications to be an asset to your organization.

Currently, I am the Global Manager of Learning & Development at American Auto Shield. In this role, I am responsible for a team of 35 and the designing, delivering, and evaluating training programs that meet the needs of the company's employees. I also work with department executives to collaborate, consult, and identify the skills and knowledge that employees need to be successful in their roles. I have a proven track record of success in designing and delivering training programs that are relevant, engaging, and effective.

I look forward to the possibility of discussing this opportunity with you. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best Regards,

Melissa Bryant
