Contestant Requirements

1. One piece must be performed from memory.
2. The music for the pieces to be performed must accompany the contestant's application for the competition. No changes to the repertoire to be performed can be made after the national application is submitted without the approval of the National Category chair.
3. Contestants must use the accompanists provided by the competition.
4. The first selection to be performed can be chosen by the contestant and should be limited to 8 minutes in length. Other selections to be performed will be at the discretion of the judges and will be selected from the repertoire submitted with the application. The judges may ask for an entire piece, portions of a piece, and may start and stop from any place in the selection.
5. Judges have the option for callbacks.

Adjudication

1. Performances will be judged as a whole. However, the following points will be considered: musicianship, technique, creativity, musical personality, soloist confidence, and musical awareness.
2. There shall be at least four (4) qualified judges having no connection with or knowledge of the contestants. An alternate judge will be available in the event a designated judge needs to disqualify himself/herself.
3. Judges will not see any contestant's name, chapter affiliation and college or university affiliation.
4. Judges will be separated from the audience and from each other during performances.
5. The judges will confer after the last performance and have the option of callbacks before making their final decision. In the event of a callback, the contestant will be asked to perform material previously presented.
6. Judges are not obligated to designate a first place winner if, in their opinion, no contestant qualifies.
7. Judge's score sheets may include comments on the performances. Score sheets may be sent to the contestants following conclusion of the competition at the discretion of the judges.
8. National Competition Awards will not be split and only one award winner will be allowed. The decision of the judges is final.
