I thought this was a decent song. The instrumental was nicely composed. I thought the song created a creepy, odd vibe that would fit a futuristic science fiction type story in a soundtrack. The audio quality was good. It was a fairly repetitive song so it got a little boring.

I listen a lot of EDM and electronica and this really just didn't have anything that it brought to the table. The backing beat was fine, but it did not really go anywhere after that. It reminded me of the Matrix, which was kind of cool.

The introduction is a bit boring. I like the synth effect sounds and the crisp hats but I think the hats should be turned down a bit. Beside that it is not bad, it could use something exciting, it is quite predictable.

The song has a strong start to it. It's catchy and something you can move around to. The beat does get repetitive, but I still like it and I'd be willing to check out more from the artist.

There was a rave quality to this. I liked when it switched about 30 minutes through though I kept expecting something even more exciting and felt it took too long to get to more.

It's hard to critique EDM/electronica because it's just a vibe, really, you either feel it or you don't and this one, for me is gooooooood! Could listen to ten minutes of it.

I like how the song has a strong start with an interesting beat and then shifts into a more intense phase, it feels constantly evolving. The artist is very skilled.

I liked the ominous tone of this song and the bass was super strong. The song was a bit repetitive, but the energy was consistently intense all the way through.

| 2 | 49 age |  female | I did not like the sound profile of the song. The flow and beat were too random and the sound effects became annoying. Overall, the song felt like just noise. |
| 7 | 51 age |  female | The rhythm track is hypnotic. Just when it's starting to become routine, an additional track is added to keep things interesting. This is easily danceable. |
| 7 | 48 age |  male | Now here's a track I love. The grooves are more hypnotic than repetitive and I was reminded a bit of some of the rave music of the early 21st century. |
| 9 | 39 age |  female | This song was exciting, engaging, immersive, energizing, and interesting. It made me want to dance and move to the beats. The sound quality was high. |

| 7 | 35 age |  male | I thought that this song was fun to listen to and had an interesting and vibrant instrumentation and techno like feel I felt for the most part. |
| 6 | 25 age |  male | The beat on the track is pretty clean here actually. I enjoy the one two step beat that they bring here. It reminds me of detroit club music. |
| 8 | 35 age |  male | Great song! A lot that's different and it feels fresh. I love the industrial sounds. That said, at a few points it did feel a little hollow. |
| 5 | 45 age |  female | This song is okay, but there could be things different put in place. The music is weak in spots, and I don't like the vocals that much. |
