One minute into this song and it's basically the same repetitive beat and when it does evolve, it just adds another layer, instead of building into something different. It's just too boring of a song that takes far too long to grow into anything interesting.

I love this song very much because I was melted when hearing this song. It gives some positive vibes, good energy and awesome feeling. It combines the people together to enjoy and celebrate. It is really awesome and even fantastic too.

I think this song is ok, but really only is appropriate for nightclub or dance club settings, or exercise classes. I think it is too repetitive and doesn't stand out from other songs. It's very basic and not interesting.

This song felt way too basic., like just very forgettable. Its not a bad song and you would dance to it and enjoy it when on just its forgettable. It also sounds like something I could mix myself at home.

I love the beat and it makes me move my body instantly. The production quality is very crisp and pristine. However, still waiting for something to happen, I think this waits too long to kick in.

The song is very one dimensional. The repetitiveness of the the first few chords is just plain annoying. Overlaying it with a different track does not make it any better. Very amateurish.

That beat gets pretty monotonous early on. I kept hoping something would happen and we got another beat that kicked in around the 60-second mark and it's more of the same. Zzzzzz...

I liked the fast tempo of the beat on this song. Fans of electronic dance music will probably enjoy the song as well. I could see this track being played in a dance club too.

Other studies show that listening to mellow music can stimulate the production of the hormone oxytocin, which promotes feelings of love, social bonding, well-being, and calm.

| 6 | 42age | female | The composition was creative and had a good rhythm. The sound quality could have been a bit sharper and louder. The beat made me want to dance and made me feel energetic. |
| 3 | 44age | male   | It's progressive edm and I understand that but it's just taking too long to get going and it really does sound like a never ending intro. So at least the name is apt.     |
| 6 | 34age | male   | The song really takes too long to get started. The simple drum beat just drags on and on. And the drumming has a pretty harsh and high pitched sound.                      |
| 9 | 48age | female | In this song lyrics is super. Voice is clear. Music is best. Totally in this song is one of the best song in future. It gives more positive effect.                        |
| 5 | 32age | male  | The song is very repetitive, and it does not really do anything that draws my interest to it. It also does not really do a whole much to stand out.                        |
| 7 | 38age | male | I liked this steady and confident sounding song. The beat is steady and adds depth to this song. The melody is simple and adds depth to this song.                         |
| 7 | 30age | male | I think this song was pretty nice, it had a decent sound and the energy on the song was fine. I think overall it wasn't a bad song to listen to.                           |
| 8 | 36age | male | The rhythm of the beat is infectious. The song makes pretty good use of just a few sounds to create a filling sound. The ending is a bit abrupt.                           |

- 7 26  The bass of the track is fun here, I enjoy the thumping EDM style of the beat here, it sounds fun to me though. Good vibes all around.

- 5 41  I didn't care for this. I liked that there were no vocals but it was literally the same beat over and over but it just changes tempo.
