- 2 49  The music was really catchy. It was a very lively song. I could see working out to it. It had a fun beat. Unfortunately once the singing started it just went downhill. It sounded like a song that could be used for a dance or something. If it weren't for the repetitive boring lyrics I would probably be willing to listen to it again.

- 7 37  For some reason, this song made me think of the way Carlton from The Fresh Prince of Bel Air danced (the Carlton), so I could definitely imagine people dancing funny to this song! I liked this song more once the lyrics started & thought that this song was more fun & upbeat.

- 7 55  The music is electronic music that would be good for being playing in the background. There are a few unusual things in the song. There is a sort of automatic and robotic sound that makes it sound quirky and as if someone is really singing in the background.

- 5 38  I think the beat was intriguing and had me want to hear it but I did not love the noise that came in when the vocals entered reminded me of cicada bugs. And then became too repetitive, once it let up now I am writing this got better to me again.

- 4 29  Melody is pretty amateur, doesn't really have a build up or anything like that, so it's honestly a bit... Boring. Very repetitive, but that's how all electro is mostly. The weird robot talk isn't really needed as well. Don't really care for it.

- 3 26  I wasn't really a big fan of this song. It sounded like there was too much static or something in the background and the lyrics were just too repetitive for me to really get into this song, unfortunately.

- 2 22  The starting melody sounds really basic and not mastered. I feel the artist could improve by making the song multiple times over to try to create something interesting. The high hat spam is ANNOYING.

- 7 35  The music is not that vibrant and loud as it should be. It seems something playing the background. I think the mixing needs to be re done where the music levels are increased. Good Luck.

- 6 20  I think that this song has the potential to be a song but what I dislike about it is the constant repetition of the beginning introduction, beat. Which I think waters down the song.

- 5 37  Its an alright beat but its nothing really exciting new or that I have not heard before. I dislike this song. It will get lost in the countless other songs that sound just like it.
age female
- 4 24  I thought that the song had a nice level of energy too it. However, it took way too long to get going, the intro was just not that attention grabbing. It got boring after a while.
age male
- 5 30  This isn't the type of song I'd listen to at my own leisure, but I think it could work as a background song as it reminds me of the ones they use on shows like RuPaul's Dragrace.
age female
- 5 61  Not much originality with the music and it was rather redundant sounding. The lyrics were also quite repetitive. WWP just didn't hold my interest, although it was recorded well.

- 8 44  Oh yeah, this is a great club song. I would totally get down with the song at the club. I can see the smoke machines and everyone jumping up and down. Turn on the strobe lights!
age female
- 8 28  Nothing too crazy, but the artist uses placement really well in the song. Progresses the song great. The song keeps on evolving as it goes on. Great electronic track.
age male
- 2 33  Do not like how long the initial intro takes to move into the rest of the song. Do not like the repetitive nature of the beat. Or the constant hissing in the beat.
age male
- 5 42  The song is way too repetitive for my taste. It's okay to repeat in areas but not the annoying parts and not for that long. Really needs to change up more often.
age female
- 8 29  I like the beat of the song and how vibrant the music sounds especially when it comes on. I like the song artist voice and how exciting the song sounds overall.

- 4 34  This song sounds plain and like other songs. Worst song ever made me listen to this again. I would never want anyone to know I ever heard this song. No good.
age male
- 6 28  I like the beat and flow of the song for the most part in this track. The song also features strong sound production work and everything comes in clearly.
age male
- 6 38  I liked the snare on this. Sounded like those old school jackin house music kind of snares. This tune was simple but sounded like the 80s big time here.
age male
- 7 31  I enjoyed the sound of this song. It is typical EDM/electronic that makes you want to dance. The beats have rhythm that you can easily dance to.
age male
- 9 27  I like how the drums give the song a smooth rhythmic groove. The sound effects bring a very interesting sound and style to the music as well.
age male
- 8 37  The beat is pretty entertaining, and I liked the sound quality too. The song was energetic and invigorating, making me want to listen again.
age male
- 2 34  The song was overall boring and the track was nothing groundbreaking. I was too generic. Also the remix portion of it sounded poorly edited.
age male
- 5 25  My major criticism is that it sounds like it was made on a keyboard or soundbite app. No unique sounds in there. Everything is flat.
