Song title is too long. This doesn't song like a song that would play on radio, but deep mix streaming or to be mixed with other songs at a club. This sounds like music made on garageband software by an inexperienced DJ. Sounds a bit like stuff coming from South Africa right now.

I wish I had better things to say about this, but it just needs a lot of work. The effects are too repetitive, and while the beat is okay, there are no surprise or original elements there to keep me listening. Keep working on it.

Very throbby with the pulsation of sounds. Certainly can be found at an EDM club or some rave. Would be great to listen to at a concert while dancing. Very high energy. Musically... Somewhat indistinct. But it fits its purpose.

I really enjoy the feel of this song. Exciting, mesmerizing, and energizing. Inspires movement. Wonderful piece to play if you want to get amped up. Some really awesome percussion elements. I really like this a lot.

The song was a bit uneventful. I wasn't super immersed or interested in the song, sorry. The combination of sounds and instrumentals still complimented one another fine. The song just felt a bit too repetitive.

This hardly qualifies as a song to me. It is just some contrived sounds programmed without much creativity involved. Anyone could do this and use effects to put something like this together. Don't like it.

I liked this energetic and steady song. The melody is consistent and keeps me wanting to move. The electronic melody reminds me a lot of Skrillex and has a more industrial feel to it.

The start took a bit to long to get into the song. It felt like I was just waiting for it to really get going. It has potential I just think it needs to get into the main beat faster.

This was a decent electronic instrumental. The composition was fine. I didn't think there was enough energy, I didn't feel much from this song. The sound quality was good.

- 5 30  The song is overly repetitive. It does not really do anything different throughout the song. It does not really do anything that draws me to the song.

- 9 38  This song was cool, energizing, exciting, and moving. It made me want to smile and dance. The sound quality was clear and high. The beats were smooth.

- 9 25  This song is so unique and funky, and I absolutely enjoyed listening to it. In particular the funky bass section is so interesting and one-of-a-kind.

- 3 48  I did not like the back ground music. The beat was hard to follow. Also the repeating sounds became annoying. However, the sound quality was good.
age female
- 8 28  The production in this song was pretty solid overall. I really enjoyed the production and the overall song structure as well. This is a good song.
age male
- 3 26  I thought this song was okay. It's not exactly something I would listen to though. The beat was too repetitive and kind of disturbing to my ears.
age female
- 9 29  I like the different percussion sounds that are in the song's beat. The melody has a distinctive and out of this world sound that's very exotic.
age male
- 6 26  Decent use of bass and kick. Sound's kind of futuristic. Would sound better if it kept a faster pace. Sounds like it needs another part or two.
age male
- 7 38  The beat for this song has a really strong beat to it, but it feels like it is missing a really strong element to pull everything together.

The song reminds me a bit of early 2000s video game music. I can imagine this playing during an industrial or dark level in a game.

This is the worse song I have heard in a week. It gave me a headache. This person must have been stoned while playing around.
